

Child Run Over by Truck.
 Scario Boy, ten years old, of No. 196 East Eighteenth street, skating along First avenue at Sixteenth street early to-day, was run over by a truck drawn by a team of horses. The child was taken to Bellevue Hospital suffering from internal injuries.

FAMOUS FOR HER HAIR

Actress Tells How to Obtain It.

Madame Rose, the well-known actress who played on one of the leading vaudeville circuits the past winter and who is especially noted for her long, beautiful hair, in a recent interview in Chicago made the following statement: "Any lady or gentleman can promote the growth of their hair and make it soft and glossy with this simple recipe which they can mix at home. To a half pint of water add 1 oz. of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and 1/4 oz. of glycerine. Apply to the scalp two or three times a week with the finger tips. This is not only the finest hair grower I have ever known, but it prevents the hair from falling out, removes dandruff and scalp humors, darkens streaked, faded gray hair and makes it soft and glossy. The ingredients can be purchased at any drug store at very little cost. —Advt.

LEASED CUNARDER HALTED BY CARONIA, CONVERTED CRUISER

Orduna Lacked Familiar Terminal "ia" and Britisher Took No Chances.

For the first time in the memory of the old timers in this harbor a transatlantic liner came into port to-day flying the flag and bearing the colors of the Cunard Line, but not carrying a name ending with the letters "ia." The ship is the Orduna and it was the first time she was ever seen in this port. She was chartered by the Cunard Line from the Royal Mail Line to take the place of a larger ship which was laid up because the cost of operating ocean leviathans in these days is out of all proportion to the small number of passengers carried. The Orduna will remain in the Cunard service until after the war.

 Off Fire Island in the early dawn to-day the Orduna was held up by the converted cruiser Caronia, which was a Cunard liner before. It was changed into a vessel of war. Capt. Smith of the Caronia did not recognize the Orduna and went aboard to satisfy himself that she was really what she represented herself to be. Capt. Thomas Taylor of the Orduna proved that his vessel was English and was allowed to proceed.
 Lanier Winslow, Private Secretary to Ambassador Gerard, coming home for a brief visit, was on board. He did not learn of Mr. Gerard's defeat for the office of United States Senator until the boat reached quarantine. Mr. Winslow was greatly disappointed. "Mr. Gerard," he said, "was confident of being elected, but, of course, he was handicapped by his inability to take part in the campaign. He is too busy in Berlin to give more than a passing thought to the result of the election."
 Lewis R. Decker, United States Consul at Nottingham, England, was anxious to get the latest war news. He said that when he left England that nation was just beginning to wake up to the seriousness of the conflict.
 Mrs. Stovall and Miss Stovall, the wife and daughter of Pleasant Alexander Stovall, United States Minister to Switzerland, was on the Orduna. Miss Stovall wanted to join the French Red Cross, but was dissuaded because of the official position held by her father.

 The Orduna carried 111 first cabin, 291 second cabin and 429 steerage passengers.
